

TAMWORTH FESTIVAL MUSICIANS' HEADQUARTERS

Musician's Headquarters Music Know How 2008

Taking the place of the usually extended Musician's Headquarters is the

Music Know How - Know How it Works

on Friday Jan. 25th.

Planned and co-ordinated to deliver a maximum amount of Music Industry Information in one day, Music Know How once again features a diverse range of topics for the professional and amateur muso and performer.

The intensive day-long program commences at Midday upstairs at the Small Business Centre, (opposite the Central Hotel in Peel St). with the following workshops being offered;

12 midday

Music Managers Forum (MMF)
Open forum-questions and answers.

Contact: Ron Brown
M:0414 097 290

Following their hugely successful 2007 seminars, this one is not to be missed for those needing to learn about artist management.

2.00pm

OZ Country Radio Singles
Country Radio Singles and Independent artist promotion.

Contact Steve Graham
M:0412 485 174

Radio friendly cost competitive compilations for both radio and online. Particularly important for the Independent artist, OZ Country offers the opportunity to have your music projected to both radio and online via a cost competitive focused compilation.

3.00pm

Blue Tongue
Beginners Harmonica Workshop with Doug Lyons

Contact: Doug Lyons
P:0412 668 575

Doug Lyons from Blues Preachers and Sydney Harmonica Festival will be sharing his expertise with aspiring Harmonica players.

4.00pm

Voice Makeover and Tune-up Protective Vocal Techniques.
With singer / songwriter and teacher,
Connie Kis Andersen

Contact: Chris Benko
M:0417 922 189

Endorsed by TAFEWA, UWA and WAM, Connie Kis Andersen has taught these techniques at TAFEWA and the University of WA for several years now. This workshop is highly recommended for the young singer just starting out, no matter what the genre. Protecting and nurturing the voice is golden and essential for long-term career delivery.

6.00pm

Attitude Productions
"Looking Good with Attitude".
Promoting yourself to fans, media and music industry via video.

Contact: Graham Archer
M:0415 807 790

Attitude Productions/Films presents Making a Music Clip Production workshop. The basics with Multi-Media Writer/Producer Graham Archer and "Fist Full of Dreams" award winner director-editor-cinematographer Jason Archer. Jason and Graham will outline the steps in promoting yourself to fans, media and music industry via your first video clip. Attitude Productions have many runs on the board with first entry video clips for emerging and established artists. This will include guest speakers with open forum* demonstrations of Attitude Productions country clips.

Bookings: Musicians Head Quarters reception opens for registrations at 10.00am on Friday Jan 25.

Please come to Musician's HQ an half hour before seminar or workshop so convenors can prepare seating and material allocation in seminar/workshop area. Those wishing to book prior, please call or email co-ordinator, Jim Guider.

Mobile: 0409795492 or Email: jim@musiciansheadquarters.com.au

Other news:

- The Tamworth Festival Musician's Headquarters celebrates ten years in 2008 and although, not open for the usual seven days plus, it's extensions have plenty to offer.
- Also celebrating ten years in 2008, The Country Music Bulletin on the corner of Kable Ave. and Brisbane St. [next to Regent Theatre] can serve all your Music Industry enquiries regarding the CM Festival 2008 industry program. You can subscribe to print and online, when you visit the Bulletin.
- Another extension for the Musos HQ is the Toohey's New Country Music Challenge: Band Search at The Longyard on Monday night Jan. 21st at 8pm. Country Music Challenge features six high profiled bands ready to do battle.
- Tuesday Jan. 22nd and Wednesday Jan. 23rd at 5-30pm, sees the; Guitar Unleashed: Long Live the Lead Break taking place on the Cutting Edge Music Stage upstairs at The Tudor Hotel in Peel St. Sponsored by Blade Guitars, Long Live the Lead Break will bring the best guitarists together to showcase their talents. The final climaxes on Thursday Jan. 24th, with the winner taking part in the Blade Guitars Showcase later that night.
- Musos HQ is handing out special promo bags to Muso/Muso Industry at Music Know How, Country Music Challenge, Guitar Unleashed and selected venues.
- To celebrate ten years Musos HQ and the Country Music Bulletin are combining To offer you a chance to win the Birthday Celebration Pack. To enter, simply place your entry form in the entry box at the Bulletin, next to The Regent Theatre.

For Musos and Music Industry coming to Tamworth for CM Festival 2008, I wish you a safe and secure journey.

Jim Guider www.musiciansheadquarters.com.au