

Coca-Cola

CONCERTS IN THE PARK

Western Australian Artists on show in Tamworth 2008

With the support of Capital News and Rural Press Events, Western Australia will have an opportunity to showcase some of the fine talents that aren't often seen on the east coast.

Hosted by John Slaven, popular 2CHR fm Hunter Valley radio presenter, the line up will include a mix of WA's established and emerging young artists, namely Connie Kis Andersen, Lauren Brede, Polly Medlen and Chad Woods.

Connie Kis Andersen, a finalist in the 2007 WAM awards for Best Country Act and the recent ACRA Awards for female vocalist was also voted WA's Best Female Country Music Vocalist in 2006.

Both Polly Medlen and Lauren Brede have been winners of the WAM Song of the Year Regional and Country categories with Polly being the current winner and Lauren a past winner in 2004.

Chad Woods, the only male amongst the group is representing WA in the Telstra Road to Tamworth finals. He has a string of awards to his name including being a two times winner of the Best WA Male Country Music Vocalist 2001 and 2006.

The event is scheduled for Monday, January 21 on the Coca Cola Stage in the Hands Of Fame Park, Kable Avenue at 7.00pm.

This free concert is a rare opportunity for country music fans and one not to be missed.

CAPITAL NEWS

COUNTRY MUSIC